

Binx

November 18, 2024

In memory of the best cat I've ever had. You were called home early but I'm glad we got to spend the time you had left with each other. I genuinely couldn't wish for a better pet. You are loved more than you'll ever know and I hope you're in heaven having the best time you could ever have.