

Houdini

January 2, 2026

Houdini was true to his name in every way, a tiny escape artist with a bold spirit and an endless curiosity. He loved mealtime most of all, especially his Repashy. Food, exploration, and the joy of discovery were some of his greatest pleasures.

He had a love for jumping, always ready to surprise us with his agility and confidence. Time and again, Houdini proved he was exactly who he was named after. Clever, daring, and full of life.

Though small in size, and only 7 years old, Houdini's presence was deeply felt. He was cherished, cared for, and loved beyond measure. His memory will remain in the quiet moments, in every familiar habit.

Rest gently now, Houdini. You were truly one of a kind, and you will never be forgotten. Ever.
